

TIDINGS

October 2025

Newsletter of St. Timothy's Episcopal Church Danville, CA

As we come to the close this chapter of our stewardship drive in October, I find myself thinking about how gratitude fills me quietly as the days get shorter. Stewardship has a way of calling us back to what matters: our shared life, our commitment to God's work, and the trust that what we give. We share our time, hearts, and resources to keep tilling good soil for St. Timothy's and our community.

November always feels like a pivot month. I get very disoriented when the time changes and 5:30pm feels like 10pm. But even so, the air shifts and the light softens. I really love walking home from church after a long day with Fall twilight. I am grateful to have the privilege to serve at St. Timothy's.

Gratitude is not a feeling to muster, but a posture to practice. It grows as we take stock of the year behind us—the grace that carried us through, the people who stood by us, the glimpses of God's faithfulness we almost missed in the rush of things.

And soon, Advent will arrive expectant with hope. It's weird to call November 30th the beginning of the year, but for the church it is. Advent is the season that teaches us to wait, to breathe, to make room for Christ once more. We move from thanksgiving into anticipation, from gratitude into hope. Stewardship, gratitude, Advent—they're not separate themes but one long conversation about belonging and trust.

So as we turn toward November, practice turning your heart to thankfulness. May we carry forward the spirit of stewardship, not as an obligation but as a response to God's abundance. And may our waiting in Advent be filled with a sense of holy possibility—that even now, God is still doing something new.

Pumpkins, Pets, and Retreats

Looking back was a full month of goodness. You will see lots of pics inside. Our pet blessing was great and the weather held out. Diane and Ginger threw quite a party in Grace House, while Susan and I had a very productive clergy retreat.

LATER

In this season of changing light and longer shadows we notice the abundance of the harvest gathered from fields and orchards. The crisp red apples, orange pumpkins and gourds, colorful pears and ruby seedless grapes are presented in farmer's markets and in bins on grocery shelves. The season has changed, the harvest is nearly finished and still there is a feeling of now, but not yet. We wonder, like generations before, is it enough? We have generously given to our own Fruits of the Harvest, knowing that FOTH will bring our generous giving into the lives of people who will be helped in their lives by our generosity, but wonder—will the institution and attitudes that brought us to think about scarcity be changed? Will we be able to respond to the call of God's Love to care for one another as the nights grow longer?

I think of an apple orchard where my teen youth group scattered beneath apple trees to pick up "drops," the apples that had fallen to the ground; these whole and good fallen apples would be steamed, cleaned, mashed and made into cider. We filled small crates and gleaned a few apples remaining from the trees whose apples had been harvested days before by people and machines that reached high into the trees. We ran and laughed, crunched just picked apples and avoided fruit that was already composting into the ground.

I think the "money" raised was for a local charity and I took home my few gleaned apples and paid by the pound. The new curate carried bins, just watching as we checked out and ate our donuts and cider. When I returned home, I knew that I had picked the apples my family shared. I wondered about the cider made from apples we gathered at the orchard. Was one of my apples picked up off the ground in the cider we brought home later? I could not know. Together the youth group had picked up a lot of apples—perhaps my apples or a friend's was in the cider—and yet, even now, when I pour cider I think of all the sunshine, rain, hands, and microbes that bring cider into being. Abundance is not a singular event, it is something that happens together.

Beside the steps to the columbarium is a mini-pomegranite shrub, a reminder of love, hope, transformation and new life. In the center of the columbarium is the fountain whose water reminds us of the everflowing Love of God and New Life promised in our baptism. We are invited into relationship with Christ to share the abundance of God's love and the power in Christ to make the systemic changes that shares the fruits of the harvest with all people.

As darkness lingers while the world turns, may we be reminded that we are not alone. The saints that have gone before us offer us wisdom, friends in faith, near and far, offer strength, little ones in our midst, shine with hope in God's promise of abundance. God is calling us not only to labor in the fields, but to invite others to a table of abundance—a place where we can set aside fear and anxiety and be filled with a joy overflowing. We gather to pray and to work, not alone, but together—sent forth to do the good things God has given us to do.

God, I pray that you help us to see your love in all things and send us the friends we need to walk this road, that we may walk together in the power and mystery of your Love.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

COSTUMES AND SAINTS

Join us in costume (please no blood) or dressed as a saint on Sunday, November 2, All Saints Day when we celebrate all the Saints in our lives and those who are in God's nearer presence. Be creative as a Saint, or we welcome your Halloween costumed self! We are all called to walk in the way of the goodness (and sweetness) of life.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY AND STORIES

At Children's Liturgy we light candles, (being acolytes for our service), pray, and share Bible stories and an activity before we join families at the Peace. We continue with Old Testament stories that form our faith including the stories of Abraham, Sarah, Jacob, Moses and Joseph. We encourage families to take one of the children's bulletin which has puzzles about our lectionary and to share bible stories at home.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Youth ministry continues to build a web of connections in Contra Costa County. We had the privilege of Pastor Lauren from Danville Congregations joining us when we held Deanery youth at St. Timothy's on October 12th.

As you can see from the schedule. November 9th will be at St. Paul's Walnut Creek. We will have our usual complement of fun, food, and games. Our project will focus on painting a room in Trinity Center right next door to St. Paul's sanctuary.

So wear your paint clothes!

Trinity Center is a transition housing facility with case management. Their vision is to be a community working together to address the traumatizing effects of poverty and remove barriers to stable housing through compassionate services, education, shelter, and advocacy.

LITURGICAL ART: HELPERS NEEDED!

LOOKING AHEAD FOR INSTALLATION OF LITURGICAL ART FOR THE NEW SEASON:

Advent is right around the corner.

Please let Leslie Firth know if you can help with any of the installations below.

leslifirth@comcast.net

ADVENT

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 23rd, right after the 10am service, we'll be installing the contemporary blue/purple banner over the altar and the wreathes with blue ribbons. We will need about 4 or 5 helpers, and it will go fast. We will prepare for setting up the manger scene under the altar.

CHRISTMAS

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 21st, right after the 10am service, we will need about 6 helpers to install a big gold banner over the altar and a long banner behind the cross, so we'll need to go up to the loft above the big wooden wall (Reredos) behind the cross. We will also need to change the ribbons to red on the Christmas wreathes.

The 4th Sunday of Advent is December 21st, and Christmas Eve is that next Tuesday the 24th, so there is a shorter amount of time to prepare for all the Christmas banners and putting up the poinsettia display. This one will be a bit more labor intensive.

The poinsettia base platform will go up on that Sunday December 21st, under the cross after we are through installing the banners. The arranging of poinsettias will start then and continue on Monday, the 22nd.

CONVENTION REPORT

On Saturday, the presentation of the strategic vision plan was interspersed with a communion service. So, worship took 5 hours! It worked however with different elements of the strategic plan presented and discussed through the day.

Our own Lisa Perry was elected to a three year term on the Executive Council. The resolutions for the formation of an assessment committee, non-stipendiary diaconal access to church pension fund, resisting Christian nationalism, and affordable housing passed. While the resolution to lift up Roberto Clemente was delayed for further discussion.

Finally, our own Rev. Todd Bryant will be president of Executive Council.

OUTREACH NEWS

MONUMENT CRISIS CENTER BREAKS GROUND FOR FOOD PANTRY EXPANSION

On Thursday, October 9, 2025 Monument Crisis Center celebrated the official groundbreaking of the expansion of their food pantry at their building in Concord, CA. The project will double the space available to store and organize the food that they give to clients at the Concord site and at the pop-up site in Pittsburg. Part of this year's donation by St Timothy's will go toward the pantry expansion, and it will be matched by a generous donor, who is matching the next $150,000 donated to the project.

To see pictures from the ground-breaking, go to <https://www.facebook.com/MonumentCrisisCenter?>

OPTIONS RECOVERY SERVICES

Options held their first Donor Appreciation Night in Berkeley on September 19th, with a dinner for the honorees. St Timothy's was recognized among all the recipients as one of their major donors. We have donated $100,000 in funds over the 23 years of supporting them. Peg Miller and Patti Farris, liaisons for Options, represented St Timothy's.

We have also donated in kind donations of furnishings for housing, and clothing, holiday gift bags for the clients. We provided Shepherd's Pie dinners for their graduation ceremonies, and the Options staff retreats were held at St. Timothy's.

Options helps people to reclaim their lives from substance use disorders. They have grown into a state wide model for treating substance use disorders as a public health issue, shifting the focus from punishment to healing, serving over 1,000 clients each year with compassionate person-centered care.

They offer clean and sober housing for 160 people in nine homes; a mental health clinic; in-prison programs with mentors; re-entry programs; and Community Outreach. We have a guest speaker from Options at our church in September during National Recovery month. Saint Timothy's Outreach is honored to support such a successful program.

2025 OUTREACH GRANTS

Thank you to the many generous supporters of Fruits of the Harvest (FOTH) 2025 and everyone in the parish for a very successful event and an amazingly generous fund for this year's Outreach Grants. Last year we made grants for almost $76,000 ($75,900) and this year, St. Timothy's will send out grants for $90,100! I don't know if this is a record, but it is certainly the biggest year we have had since 2020! See the article of FOTH-2025 for the details. The rest of the total available comes from the church budget and miscellaneous donations to Outreach during the year since the last grants. Thanks so much to the Vestry for approving the grants proposal from the Outreach Committee, who only met last Monday to work out the grant amounts.

CONTRA COSTA INTERFAITH COALITION

Thank you to all of you at St. Timothy's for your support of CCIC - Contra Costa Interfaith Coalition. The $8500 grant from Fruits of the Harvest will allow us to provide many beds for people transitioning from the shelters and streets.

Contra Costa Interfaith Coalition

The funding gives us the cushioning to have beds in stock, rather than ordering on an as needed, and as funds allow, basis. This translates to fewer nights on the floor for our clients.

Another huge thank you for your support of the Deanery youth cleaning kit packaging event. Thanks to Kimberly Bryant's amazing coordination of the drive, we were able to fill 36 cleaning kits. The kits are laundry baskets filled with all the essentials our clients need to begin a new life in the permanent housing.

I am truly proud and honored to be part of such a giving congregation.

GREAT BUNCO NIGHT!

On Friday, October 10th, 32 NEW members and guests met to play Bunco. There were frequent cries of “Bunco” and lots of excitement as the players worked to get the evening’s prizes. The victorious were: Barbara Thatcher for Most Points, Shelley Wells for Most Wins and Caryle Voss for Most Buncos. Two Queens were the reigning monarchs at the Head Table: Chris Milligan and Katie Morehouse. Diane Cohen brought gifts for the two lowest prize winners.

The organizers Roz Adekunle (leader of NEW, procured food, drinks and did overall setups), Lisa Perry (publicity) and Dee Geisler (Bunco game) very much appreciated everyone who signed up and showed up to play. Thanks also to those who brought snacks and appetizers and to Joann Oliver for bringing the lovely pumpkin decorations. Thanks to Barbara Hoversen for going over the rules of the game. Everyone seemed to have a good time, and several there asked us about having the game every four months instead of just “once in a awhile”. The best part was seeing so many smiling faces.

- Concrete work of Grace House walkways is complete.

Parish members are welcome to attend Vestry meetings. The next meeting is on Wednesday November 19, 2025, at 6:30 in the Conference Room in Grace House.

ST. TIMOTHY'S MISSIONAL CHALLENGE

In Danville and surrounding areas, we recognize many people experience grueling work schedules along with significant duties of raising families and/or caring for aging parents.

The culture places a high value on performance and over-achievement which can lead to a myriad of physical and mental health problems. We want to offer an alternative, an oasis, which springs from our faith. Put another way, we want to demonstrate to our culture that it's ok to take time out and rest and even that one's worth is not based on achievement.

This spans generations as youth in our area are often under enormous pressure to get top grades, participate in myriads of activities, all to get into the best colleges in the country.

Accordingly, we have the following general goals:

- Cultivate rest and renewal in a busy culture.
- Support mental health
- Address loneliness
- Encourage listening to one another as a means of support.
